

PAPER PRICE STANDS

OTTAWA, Ontario, Nov. 15.—The paper control tribunal, which has been investigating the news print situation, has decided that it had no authority to change the price of $60 a ton for news print paper set by the Pringle Commission. Figures relating to the profits made by the paper mills were submitted to the tribunal by W. N. Tilley, acting for the Canadian publishers.

CHILD LABOR BILL READY FOR SENATE

A new child labor measure will be presented in the Senate by Senator Lenroot of Wisconsin as an amendment to the revenue bill.

The amendment will probably be offered tomorrow. It was agreed on today in conference among Senators who are interested in the subject, including Senators Lenroot, Kenyon, and Pomeroy.

The amendment provides for an excise tax of the business of any concern that employs child labor. The tax would be high enough to be prohibitive.

The Supreme Court not long ago knocked out the child labor law passed by Congress some months before. The present measure, according to lawyers, would stand the test of the court, and would abolish child labor in all parts of the country.

GERMAN MUSICIAN BEATEN BY PLAYERS

CHICAGO, Nov. 15.—Italian members of the Chicago Grand Opera Company's Symphony Orchestra were so enthused over the surrender of Austria at rehearsal that they started the day with cheers and proposed the playing of "The Star-Spangled Banner" as the opening number.

Standing and playing as perhaps they never played before members of the orchestra suddenly became aware that William F. Lange, a German-American, had remained in his chair and was not using his instrument. Instead he scowled at the men who looked his way. Toward the end of the anthem some one gave Lange a kick. And hardly before the last note had died away he was the center of a howling mob, which threatened to injure if not kill him.

The manager of the orchestra managed to restrain the angry musicians long enough to call a policeman, who took Lange in charge. Lange then declared that he had been ill and was unable to play. Before he left the theater he was formally notified of his discharge.

TWO YANK HEROES RETURN TO HOMES

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—Lieut. Col. Charles M. Whittlesey, commander of the "lost battalion," arrived in New York from France. His battalion of the Seventy-seventh division, which pushed so far ahead of the main force in the Argonne early last month that it was cut off, held the Germans at bay until it was rescued five days later.

Whittlesey, who was a New York lawyer before the war, replied to the German demand for surrender with the brief and pointed advice to "Go to hell."

Whittlesey was accompanied by Lieut. Thomas Hitchcock, of Westbury, L. I., American aviator, who was brought down behind the German lines and escaped through Switzerland.

MOTHER OF FIVE HELD FOR BIGAMY

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—Mrs. Ethel Goldstein McCann, a twenty-two-year-old mother of five children, has admitted that she is a bigamist. With a baby clutched close to her breast and a two-year-old toddler tugging at her skirt, Mrs. McCann wept as the charge was read against her.

She tried to quiet the little one in her arms, and then looked Magistrate Mancuso straight in the eye.

"I'm guilty, judge," she said, "but I've got five little ones to support."

Samuel Goldstein, her first husband, made the charge against her. He married her in 1912, and five babies came to them. She readily admitted marrying William McCann on October 23 last. He is now in the army. She scathingly denounced her first husband for hiding behind a woman's skirts to dodge the draft.

Magistrate Mancuso was compelled to hold her in $1,000 bail for further hearing.

MEXICO ON GOLD BASIS

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 15.—President Carranza has signed a decree, which will be published this week, reforming the monetary system of Mexico by placing it strictly on a gold basis. The recent monetary crisis was caused by the exportation of silver half-peso pieces, which, as the result of the high price of silver, were worth more as bullion than as coin.
